Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Shareholders Agreement

On March 21, 2012, Ellis Yan, Solomon Yan and the Lillian Yan Irrevocable Stock Trust entered into a Shareholders Agreement (the "Shareholders Agreement"), which sets forth certain various provisions relating to, among other things, the board of directors and transfer restrictions. Cherry Plus became a party to the Shareholders Agreement on June 24, 2014.

Board of Directors. The Shareholders Agreement provides that, as long as the parties to the Shareholders Agreement own a majority of the outstanding Common Shares, each of the parties will vote his or its Common Shares and take all other necessary actions to cause the board of directors to include (i) Ellis Yan (or his designee), as long as he owns one common share, (ii) Solomon Yan (or his designee), as long as he owns one common share, and (iii) such other nominees as designated by Ellis Yan. This voting obligation generally requires a vote against the removal of any director referred to above and a vote for filling any vacancy created by resignation, removal or death of a director with an individual designated by the shareholder.

Transfer Restrictions. The Shareholders Agreement places certain restrictions on the transfer of Common Shares held by the parties to that agreement. With certain limited exceptions (including transfers to a trust for the benefit of the shareholder's family), those parties cannot transfer the Common Shares they hold without first offering those Common Shares to the other parties.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Shareholders Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference from Exhibit 5 to this Schedule 13D.

Registration Rights Agreement

On March 21, 2012, Ellis Yan, Solomon Yan and the Lillian Yan Irrevocable Stock Trust entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which certain registration rights have been granted to the parties as holders of Common Shares that constitute registrable securities. Cherry Plus became a party to the Registration Rights Agreement on June 24, 2014.

Demand Registration. Subject to certain exceptions, after the expiration of the 180-day lock-up period, holders of registrable securities then outstanding have the right to demand that the Issuer file a registration statement covering the offer and sale of their registrable securities.

Form F-3 or S-3 Registration Rights. Subject to certain exceptions, holders of the Issuer's registrable securities then outstanding have the right to request that the Issuer file a registration statement on Form F-3 or Form S-3 or a similar form.

Piggyback Registration Rights. Subject to certain exceptions, if the Issuer proposes to register any of its common shares or other securities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with a public offering of those securities solely for cash, then it must offer the parties to the registration rights agreement an opportunity to include in that registration all or any part of their registrable securities. If the underwriters of any underwritten offering determine in good faith that marketing factors require a limitation on the number of shares, then the underwriters may exclude the shares to be included in the registration statement of the requesting holders of registrable securities, but the Issuer must use its reasonable best efforts to cause the underwriters to include their registrable securities.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Registration Rights Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference from Exhibit 6 to this Schedule 13D.
